

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

Tuesday, November 9, 2010
7pm – Refreshments will be provided

Almost 19% of women in Texas receive delayed or no prenatal care, significantly increasing their risk of death.
Women in the USA have a greater risk of dying during pregnancy complications than women in 40 other countries.

MATERNAL HEALTH IS A HUMAN RIGHT

Learn more about the maternal health care crisis in the U.S. and in Texas and what YOU can do to HELP, including exciting upcoming legislation!

Hosted by University of Texas Chapter of Amnesty International, Austin, TX
In Calhoun Hall, Room 100
In the South Mall
Off of 21st Street

PANELISTS:

Kristina Brady
Amnesty International USA

Kellee Coleman
Mamas of Color Rising

Gail Gresham
Central Texas Healthy Mothers
Healthy Babies Coalition

Paula Rojas
Childbirth Educator, Doula &
Women's Health Advocate

For more information, contact Kris at 512-736-1277, kristinabrady@hotmail.com or Sarah at 512-567-2354, sarahculler44@hotmail.com